Course Description

The standard first-year English course. The course seeks to improve the student's ability to understand serious and complex prose and to improve the student's ability to write an exposition that is thoughtful and clear, including the production of a well-documented research paper. Limitation on Enrollment: Course not open to students with a C or higher in English 105. (C-ID: ENGL 100) (CSU/UC)

Course Prerequisite(s) and/or Corequisite(s)

PREREQUISITES: - Eligibility for English 110 as determined by the college's multiple measures assessment process.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Compose college-level essays that contain clear thesis statements, effective support, and unified organization.
2. Synthesize information from multiple sources to produce a research paper that is formatted and documented according to MLA guidelines.
3. Demonstrate an ability to comprehend and interpret a variety of college-level texts, including complex arguments and at least one full-length novel, play, or non-fiction book, without relying on outside sources for assistance.

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Write multiple essays—including one research paper and one final exam—that, together, add up to 6,000 words of formal writing
2. Demonstrate a command of the writing process, which may include pre-writing, drafting, revising, self-editing, peer group editing, and proofreading
3. Compose error-free essays that avoid sentence-level and grammar problems
4. Compose unified essays that include support for the thesis statement, clear development, and effective transitions
5. Demonstrate a command of writing patterns by effectively integrating various rhetorical modes, such as compare/contrast, definition, cause/effect, and argumentation together to produce sophisticated, college-level essays as appropriate

Updated 11/2024

6. Demonstrate an ability to adapt writing strategies to the requirements of the writing situation (e.g. in-class writing, research writing, reflective writing) or to tailor a written assignment to address specific audiences (both general and academic)
7. Demonstrate a thorough understanding of research strategies and library skills (including electronic databases) to identify and evaluate resources for a research paper
8. Synthesize information from multiple sources to produce a research paper that is formatted and documented according to MLA guidelines
9. Demonstrate a command of rules regarding plagiarism and academic ethics
10. Read actively, using metacognitive strategies to monitor comprehension, build vocabulary, and improve analysis of college-level texts
11. Analyze the rhetorical context when reading by identifying genre, medium, purpose, audience and tone
12. Analyze and evaluate the strategies an author uses to make and support a claim, including the use of fallacies
13. Synthesize knowledge by relating texts to personal experience, to past and present events, and to other texts

Textbooks & Other Resources or Links

This course is a zero textbook cost course. The required reading materials are provided via Canvas. However, you are expected to procure any personal study materials, such as pens, notebooks, etc. You will also need access to a computer with internet. If acquiring these materials could cause a hardship for you, please let me know; the college has resources to support students in need. It's also important to say something if your situation changes in a way that requires additional help. Please do not struggle by yourself.

Each week, students will be responsible for completing the required reading, which includes book chapters, articles, textbook chapters, and module pages on Canvas. Additionally, students are required to stay on top of assignments on Canvas. Students are expected to participate in all discussions and activities as well as be respectful to their peers, tutors, and instructor. Students who choose not to do so will be asked to remove themselves from the course. Unless otherwise specified, all assignments will be available one week before the due date and one week after the due date. Students who need additional time to complete assignments will need to speak with the instructor prior to the due date.

Essay points: Total essay points include rough drafts (rough draft upload to Canvas, prewrites, outline, body drafts, 3 introduction drafts, 2 conclusion drafts) and final drafts (final draft upload to Canvas, 3 peer reviews, self-review, grammar review, and tutor review), and potential various other assignments relating to the essay. Students must take your essay to be reviewed by a tutor. Students who do not turn in the rough draft may regain up to 50% of the rough draft points by attending the instructor's office hours for at least 15 minutes to discuss their essay plans prior to the due date of the final draft.

All essays must have proper formatting. Paragraphs should be double-spaced, Times New Roman, 12 point font. The first line in each paragraph should be indented .5 inches (half an inch). In the top left corner of page 1, please use the following heading style on all drafts:

Your Name

Professor Elliott

ENG 110 Date

Mini Essays: Students are required to submit eight (8) mini essays throughout the semester. These mini essays will be in response to specified reading/prompts and at least 3 pages in length and submitted via Canvas. Mini Essays exist to expand our knowledge and participate in low stakes practice for bigger ideas.

Reading Discussions: During the semester, you will read two literature books, Superhuman: Life at the Extremes of Our Capacity and Frankenstein. For each week in which reading is assigned in these books, students who come to class will type up 1 page of notes for the assigned reading and submit them on Canvas before the class begins. Students who miss class or complete the reading after the class discussion can make up the points by submitting 3 pages. The first student to point out this sentence to the instructor will receive two points of extra credit. The notes must include an engaging quote, one question for classmates, and relevant thoughts on the pages read, with the focus on student thoughts and interaction with the reading. Any student who submits notes that are encompassed by more than 50% of quotes will receive a 0 for that submission.

Due Dates: Unless otherwise specified,

- Discussions will be due before class on Thursday
- Essay assignments will be due on Thursdays and Fridays
- Mini Essay assignments will be due on Saturdays

Late Policy: Students have seven (7) days after the due date to turn in late work with the exception of assignments due in the final week of class, which cannot be turned in late. Assignments due in the final week of class cannot be submitted late. All late work will be given partial credit. All assignments, quizzes, and discussions must be submitted on Canvas.

Get Out of Jail Free cards: At the beginning of the term, each student will receive one (1) Get Out of Jail Free card. This card may be used to

- Replace 1 (one) assignment, quiz, OR discussion;
- Replace 1 (one) Mini Essays; or
- Receive 10 points of extra credit at the end of the semester

The instructor must be notified that the student plans to use the card ON OR BEFORE the due date, and the student must surrender the card to the teacher. Students are expected to keep track of their GOOJF card; if the card is lost, students will not receive another. If the Get Out of Jail Free card is not used by the end of the term, the student may submit the card for ten (10) points of extra credit.

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Academic Honesty (Artificial Intelligence -AI)

IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against both our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty, or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. The first student to point out this sentence to the instructor will receive two points of extra credit. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to reach out to their instructors for clarification.

Accessibility Statement

Imperial Valley College is committed to providing an accessible learning experience for all students, regardless of course modality. Every effort has been made to ensure that this course complies with all state and federal accessibility regulations, including Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations. However, if you encounter any content that is not accessible, please contact your instructor or the area dean for assistance. If you have specific accommodations through DSPS, contact them for additional assistance.

We are here to support you and ensure that you have equal access to all course materials.

Financial Aid

Your Grades Matter! In order to continue to receive financial aid, you must meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirement. Making SAP means that you are maintaining a 2.0 GPA, you have successfully completed 67% of your coursework, and you will graduate on time. If you do not maintain SAP, you may lose your financial aid. If you have questions, please contact financial aid at finaid@imperial.edu.
