Course Description

World Regional Geography is a survey course which introduces students to the physical and cultural geographic aspects of the world's realms. Geography's interdisciplinary approach is used to analyze regions and illustrate their interdependence. (C-ID: GEOG 108) (CSU/UC).

Course Prerequisite(s) and/or Corequisite(s)

None.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Analyze and compare cultures in terms of global population patterns.
2. Analyze current spatial geographic events using the Five Themes of Geography.
3. Analyze the global economy in terms of regional production patterns.

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Relate the 5 Themes of Geography to the world's regions.
2. Analyze the cultural and physical factors which divide the world into regions.
3. Compare worldwide geographic patterns using an atlas's thematic maps.
4. Appraise the impact and implications of regional problems on world political and economic orders.
5. Discuss globalization and sustainability by viewing the world's changing economic patterns.
6. Explain regional environment concerns as they relate to the course topics.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

In this course, we will utilize several methods of instruction, including lectures, the textbook, multimedia presentations, current events, various research topics and discussion.

Lectures: Typical class meetings will consist of lectures, usually in the form of power point presentations. Students must attend/view all lectures having completed assigned reading material on the given lecture topic. Students should take notes on the lectures. Template slides for organized note-taking are available on the course Canvas page.

Textbook: All assigned readings from this course come from the required text.

Multi-Media Presentations: Videos and films will appear from time to time throughout the course. Publicly available video content ("YouTube" videos, for example) may also be assigned for viewing in lectures, or outside of class.

During the course of the semester, each student will need to complete multiple research assignments dealing with either current events, cultural specifics, demographic specifics, or environmental specifics relating to the various regions covered in the course. Instructions for completing these assignments can be found within the course modules on Canvas.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Midterm Exam: 100 points

Final Exam: 100 points

Quizzes: 11 quizzes worth 10 points each – 110 points

Discussion Forums: 11 discussion boards worth 10 points each – 110 points

Research Assignments: 4 reports worth 20 points each – 80 points

Student's Final Grades are based on 500 total points, figured by the following breakdown:

450 – 500 points – A

400 – 449 points – B

350 – 399 points – C

300 – 349 points – D

299 points or fewer – F

Extra Credit: No extra credit except what is assigned at the instructor's discretion.

Late Work Policy:

- Acceptance of late work is accepted at the discretion of the instructor.
- Late exercises or quizzes will be subject to a late penalty at the instructor's discretion.
- Makeup up exams (for absences that the instructor deems are a valid reason) must be arranged with the instructor, per IVC policies.
- A request to retake an exam due to a failed internet connection or failing to take an exam within the allotted time will result in at minimum a 20- point deduction from the final score of the exam.

Academic Honesty (Artificial Intelligence -AI)

IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against both our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty, or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to reach out to their instructors for clarification.

We are here to support you and ensure that you have equal access to all course materials.

Course Policies

Contacting your instructor:

Always send me email from your IVC email account, or via Canvas Inbox. Private emails may get lost in the IVC spam filter. The best email is: Curtis.blondell@imperial.edu.

ALWAYS make sure Subject Line Includes: Your Name, along with the name of this class. It is very important to let me know who you are and that you are taking this class, so I know the context of your email.

Online Drop Policy:

This class observes all the IVC attendance policies related to IVC policies.

If the instructor feels a student is no longer participating in the course, the student will be dropped without notice.

Failure to complete ALL assigned course work in Module 1 by the due date will result in the student being dropped without notice.

First Day Drops:

Because we do not have a firm meeting schedule in online classes, I consider attendance in the class as accessing the Canvas site on the first day of class in the semester.

Late Work Policy:

Per the course syllabus, a student's grade is derived from points earned via the following assessments: Exams, Assignments, Reading Quizzes, and Discussion Posts, and other. It is each student's responsibility to complete assignments on time. Please refer to the following policies regarding late work.

Exams:

Exams (midterm and final) MUST be taken within their respective availability timeframes to receive credit. Please review the syllabus course (last page) for these times. It is the student's responsibility to ensure they have a stable internet connection prior to starting an exam. A request to retake an exam due to a failed internet connection or failing to take an exam within the allotted time will result in at minimum a 20-point deduction from the final score of the exam.

Assignments and Reading Quizzes:

All assignments and reading quizzes may be completed up until the time indicated by the instructor to be counted for points in the course. Late point deductions will be assessed.

Discussion Forum Posts:

Activity on the course's discussion forums must be completed by the due date of the respective module to be considered for credit. Late deductions will be assessed.

Attendance:

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory

Updated 11/2024

activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class.

It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class.

- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student with continuous unexcused absences might be dropped without notice. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.

Other Course Information

A student that the instructor feels is creating a detrimental learning environment for other students for whatever reason risks being referred to IVC administration for discipline.

Financial Aid

Your Grades Matter! In order to continue to receive financial aid, you must meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirement. Making SAP means that you are maintaining a 2.0 GPA, you have successfully completed 67% of your coursework, and you will graduate on time. If you do not maintain SAP, you may lose your financial aid. If you have questions, please contact financial aid at finaid@imperial.edu.
