Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

This is a public speaking course. Therefore, completing the assigned speeches are MANDATORY. A total of four speeches (Introductory Speech, Informative Speech, Persuasive Speech, Special Occasion Speech) must be completed to pass the class. This class will also have a variety of lectures, quizzes, discussions, tests, and outline assignments. For a complete list and point values, see the latest information on Canvas.

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Compose, organize and present to a live peer audience, relevant speeches to introduce, inform and persuade in the English language.
2. Evaluate rhetorical strategies in historical and contemporary public discourse.
3. Define, identify and apply the three Aristotelian appeals of ethos, pathos, and logos.
4. Recognize and demonstrate ethical practices in all phases of speech preparation.
5. Acquire, organize, critically evaluate and include credible research materials (primary and secondary) to support ideas in a speech.
6. Analyze and adapt a speech topic to a variety of diverse audiences with a particular sensitivity to diversity, equity, inclusion, belonging, and accessibility.
7. Develop a clear, cohesive thesis and create a concise speech outline.
8. Recognize and demonstrate the characteristics of effective verbal and nonverbal delivery.
9. Design and incorporate effective visual aids.
10. Analyze and evaluate peer speeches with faculty guidance.
11. Demonstrate active listening skills and constructive criticism to peers.
12. Recognize the elements of and demonstrate effective techniques for reducing communication apprehension.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Final Grades: Your final grade in class will be determined based on how many points you have earned on all the assignments combined. However, if you do not complete the assigned mandatory speeches, you will not pass the class, regardless if you scored above a certain percentage. The grade breakdown is as follows:

A=90% - 100%

B=80% - 89%

C=70% - 79%

D=60% - 69%

F=below 60%

Academic Honesty (Artificial Intelligence -AI)

IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against both our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty, or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to reach out to their instructors for clarification.

Course Policies

Attendance/Drop Policy: It is the student's responsibility to drop all classes in which they are no longer attending. I may withdraw a student after the add/drop deadline if they stop participating in the class. Students who remain enrolled in the class past the withdrawal deadline will receive a letter grade (A, B, C, D, or F).

Late Work Policy: All course assignments must be submitted on the deadlines stated in the course calendar and/or instructor. Work submitted after the deadline (or, late) will not be graded and will receive a zero. Your instructor reserves the right to offer or decline an extension at their discretion, which may be based on your participation in the course at that time for partial credit.

Financial Aid

Your Grades Matter! In order to continue to receive financial aid, you must meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirement. Making SAP means that you are maintaining a 2.0 GPA, you have successfully completed 67% of your coursework, and you will graduate on time. If you do not maintain SAP, you may lose your financial aid. If you have questions, please contact financial aid at finaid@imperial.edu.
