Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Case Application Assignments: The Case Application Assignments are designed to prepare you step-by-step for your Counseling Theory Presentation. Rather than waiting until presentation week to apply your theory, these assignments guide you through the process of understanding, analyzing, and practicing your theory in real-life counseling scenarios. This series will involve both individual and group work.

Quizzes: Quizzes may include any or all of the following types of questions: multiple choice, true-false, matching, fill-in-the-blank, and short answer/essay. No makeups for exams or quizzes will be given without prior notification and/or documentation of an emergency. No work will be accepted over email without prior approval.

Counseling Theory Presentation: Students will collaborate in groups of four to analyze, apply, and teach an assigned counseling theory through an engaging 15–20 minute presentation. Students will be assigned a counseling theory (e.g., Psychodynamic, Person-Centered, CBT, Existential, Behavioral, Family Systems, etc.). Presentations may be delivered using: PowerPoint, Role-play demonstration, Pre-recorded video, Or a combination of formats

Students are expected to read all assigned chapters as noted in syllabus. Although, we may or may not cover all of the material shown and the dates are approximations, students will however be required to know all the material assigned in reading and other material given in class.
